Section 206AA of the IT Act applicable to individual Members (resident and non-resident)

The Income Tax Department has released a Compliance Check Functionality to determine whether the PAN in case of individual is operative/ inoperative and the Company would be relying on the report generated from the said facility for compliance with Section 139AA read with Section 206AA of the IT Act.

For all Members (Resident and Non- Resident)

The tax rates mentioned above are based on the current tax regulations. The actual tax withholding on dividend payments will be in accordance with the prevailing tax laws at the time of dividend distribution. Any change in the tax legislation will be reflected in withholding process.

Members holding shares under multiple accounts under different residential status/ Member category and single PAN, may note that, higher of the tax rate as applicable to different residential status/ category, will be considered on their entire shareholding which is held under different accounts.

The aforementioned forms (duly completed, signed and scanned) along with PAN (unless already registered) should be submitted on the website of the Company's RTA i.e. <https://ris.kfintech.com/form15>, on or before Friday, the 1st August 2025 in order to enable the Company to determine and deduct appropriate TDS / withholding tax, as may be applicable. No communication on the tax determination/ deduction shall be entertained after 1st August 2025.

After receipt of any of the declarations and basis its independent assessment, if the Company finds that any information is contrary to the declarations received by it, the Company reserves right to rely on the results of its independent assessment and make a deduction of tax at a higher rate as per applicable provisions of the IT Act.

It may be further noted that in absence of receipt of the aforementioned details/documents or for any other reason, if the tax on dividend is deducted at a higher rate there would still be an option available with the Member to file the return of income and claim an appropriate refund, if eligible. No claim shall lie against the Company for such tax deduction.

A declaration must be filed with the Company where the whole or any part of the dividend income is assessable, under the provisions of the IT Act, in the hands of a person other than the Member in accordance with Rule 37BA(2) of the Income-tax Rules, 1962 on or before Friday, the 1st August 2025. The declaration must consist of name, address, PAN, along with other documents mentioned above depending upon the tax residency status of such person to whom credit is to be given and proportion of credit to be given in respect of dividend income.

In the event of any income tax demand (including interest, penalty, etc.) arising from any misrepresentation, inaccuracy or omission of information provided/to be provided by the Member(s), such Member(s) will be responsible to indemnify the Company and also, provide the Company with all information/documents and co-operation in any appellate proceedings.

DATA UPDATION FOR SMOOTH PROCESSING-

Updation of PAN, email address and other details:

Members holding shares in dematerialized mode, are requested to update their records such as tax residential status, permanent account number (PAN), registered email addresses, mobile numbers and other details with their relevant Depositories through their Depository Participants. Members holding shares in physical mode are requested to furnish details to the Company's RTA. The Company is obligated to deduct tax at source (TDS) based on the records available with RTA and no request will be entertained for revision of TDS return.

Update of Bank account details:

We request you to submit / update your bank account details with your Depository Participant, in case you are holding shares in the electronic form. In case your shareholding is in the physical form, you will have to submit a scanned copy of a covering letter, duly signed by the first Member, along with a cancelled cheque leaf with your name and bank account details and a copy of your PAN card, duly self-attested, with RTA. This will facilitate receipt of dividend directly into your bank accounts. In case the cancelled cheque leaf does not bear the Members name, please attach a copy of the bank pass-book statement, duly self-attested. We also request you to register your email IDs and mobile numbers with the Company or the RTA.

This Communication is not exhaustive and does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax consequences in the matter of dividend payment. Members should consult their tax advisors for requisite action to be taken by them.

All communications/ queries in this respect should be addressed and sent to the Company's RTA.
