Dear Sir(s),

The Company has announced to recall 2,555 Alto K10 vehicles wherein it is suspected that there is a possible defect in Steering Gear Box Assembly (“Part”). The said defect, in a rare case, may affect the vehicle steerability.

Out of abundant caution, customers of the affected vehicles are advised not to drive or use the vehicle till the Part is replaced.

Affected vehicle owners will be contacted by Maruti Suzuki authorized dealer workshops for inspection and replacement of the Part, free of cost.

Kindly take the same on record.

Thanking you,

Yours truly,

For Maruti Suzuki India Limited
