- The registrations are open from 6th June 2019 to 21st June 2019.
- The route map is broadly identified from Bengaluru to Nandi Hills.

BY PARTICIPATING IN THIS ROAD TRIP, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE READ AND AGREED TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS HEREIN

A. General Terms

- a. Maruti Suzuki Experiences-Expedition (the 'Event') is not a race or time trial. Participants must not compete at any level with each other or other road users. Anyone found indulging in this act will be disqualified immediately from the Event, and no refund will be made.
- b. All members must understand the nature of activities involved in the adventurous trip. While MSIL (the Event organizer) would provide necessary safety measures to the extent possible, it is the responsibility of every member for his/her safety. Participation in the event would be sole discretion of the member, MSIL accepts no responsibility whatsoever.
- c. Wherever a person is accompanied by a travel companion, both person booked under the lead name of the booking agree to the Terms & Conditions set out here.
- d. Only a Maruti Suzuki Brezza, Maruti Suzuki Swift or Maruti Suzuki Baleno car shall be driven in the expedition. A vehicle with reliable mechanical systems, good brake, tyre and battery condition, is recommended. All vehicles must be individually licensed / officially permitted for the road and comply with the legal requirements of cars used on public roads in India. A Letter of Authority for the use of the vehicle must be produced from the owner of the vehicle in case the owner is not a member of the crew. It is compulsory for the vehicle to have a valid comprehensive insurance coverage policy.
- e. The accompanying service team will be only responsible for fixing the vehicles on the spot that too under normal circumstances, discounting any natural calamity, etc. if possible. Any further delay or repair work will be undertaken by the participant at his cost.
- f. Participation is only open to Maruti Suzuki Brezza, Maruti Suzuki Swift or Maruti Suzuki Baleno car owners.
- g. If a vehicle is bound to go off route as per the owner's / participating team's discretion, the event organizers reserve the right to disqualify with no refund from that point on.

- h. In case of medical assistance required by a participant, the accompanying medical team will try and provide the necessary support within their means and the medical supplies and equipment available with them, subject to the participant continuing to remain with the convoy. The medical team may take a decision to transport the participant to the nearest appropriate medical facility, using any terrestrial or aerial means. Decisions will be based only on the medical aspect and the respect of the health regulations in vigour, either to hospitalise the participant in a nearby medical facility, before envisaging transport to the nearest hospital/facility at the nearest town. The information of the patient's regular doctor, often important, may help the medical team to make the most opportune decision. In this regard, it is expressly stated that the final decision concerning the medical interests of the participant, rests with the medical team. In case where the participant refuses to follow the decision considered as the most opportune by the medical team, they discharge the event organizers of all responsibility, notably in the case where the participant returns by his/her own means or in the case where the participant aggravates his/her own health. They may, therefore, not make any claim to be refunded any expenses incurred. If the health of the participant causes, in the conditions indicated above, the medical team to decide to transfer them or repatriate them, the event organizers will assume the task of transport. In such an event, the cost of the transportation will be borne by the participant. This transport will be done by appropriate means (local vehicle, officials vehicle, light medical vehicle, ambulance), and if necessary (& possible) under medical surveillance. Only the medical interests of the participant and the respect of current health regulations will be considered when choosing the means of transport used. All medical costs incurred (consultation, medication prescribed by a doctor or a surgeon, medical costs decided by the medical team), except the medical assistance by the accompanying medical team, shall be borne by the participant.
- i. The safekeeping of the participant's vehicles will remain the sole responsibility of the participants. In case of a breakdown in the participant's vehicle, the accompanying service team will try to carry out possible repairs within their means and the spares and equipment available with them, subject to the participant's vehicle continuing to remain with the convoy. In case of a major breakdown that cannot be repaired, the event organizers will use their best efforts to arrange for a recovery vehicle to transport the participant's vehicle to the nearest point where repair facilities may be available. In such an event, the cost of the recovery vehicle will be borne by the participant. The event organizers will not be under any obligation to arrange for alternate vehicles or transportation for the participants to continue in the expedition and no request for refund of charges for the remaining journey will be entertained.
- j. All participants are responsible for calculating the fuel range of their vehicles and must refuel their vehicles at the commercial fuel pumps en-route.
- k. The event organizers shall not be responsible for any delays or alterations in the programme or expenses incurred - directly or indirectly - due to natural hazards, accident, mechanical breakdowns, weather, sickness, landslides, political closures or any untoward incidents.

1. Other than the accident insurance coverage, the event organizers will not take any insurance policy covering any other risk. Participants are advised to seek their own insurance coverage if they feel appropriate. All baggage and personal property/s at all times will be at the participants' risk & responsibility, and participants agree that organizers will not be in a position to guard or protect their belongings at any time.
